

Mr. Mellon Borrows
A Better War
Mussolini Preparing
Baltimore 200 Years Old

Secretary Mellon, needing $500,000-000 for Uncle Sam's use, invited subscriptions to treasury certificates. He was offered $1,486,000,000, almost a $1,000,000,000 more than he needed. By the way, he did not pay 9 per cent, or the federal reserve 6 per cent discount rate, either.

It looks like a real fight by Standard and other big oil companies against the British 'Shell' invading these United States.

Standard Oil cuts prices. Shell says, 'I call you' and also cuts prices. Interesting war and a better kind, with dollars instead of men lost.

In his government Mussolini held eight posts, minister of foreign affairs, marine, colonies, war, aviation, etc.

Now the powerful Italian resigns seven of his cabinet offices, remaining premier and minister of the interior only.

The king announces the changes by royal decree. Mussolini told him what to announce.

The years are passing. Mussolini knows it, and seeks to build a government machine that will survive.

The Italian question is 'After Mussolini, what?'

Lord Rothermere in a signed article asks Britain to give up the mandate and withdraw from Jerusalem. He thinks Jews would prefer 'a national home in the United States to patriarchal poverty in Palestine.'

A majority of Jews do prefer such a home. There are only 2000 American Jews among 160,000 in Palestine. But for a minority there is a passionate desire to restore Jerusalem. It may not be understood by a Scotchman not interested in returning to Edinburgh. But a Frenchman who never loses the memory of Paris understands it.

Baltimore, planning to be the country's greatest airplane city, celebrated its two hundredth birthday with flags, speeches and warships, on water and in the air.

More than one hundred years ago the guns of Fort McHenry kept the British fleet from descending on Baltimore. 'The Star-Spangled Banner' was written to celebrate that event.

Baltimore, two hundred years old, is younger and more energetic than ever.

Twenty-seven European nations are working at a plan called 'the United States of Europe plan.' Germany says she will join but not if there is an 'anti-American pact.'

That's another hint to President Hoover, and others responsible, to make this country strong enough to take care of itself.

A young German, J. F. Bohnhoeffer, climbed out of the trenches, took off his steel helmet when the war ended, aged seventeen.

Instead of spending the rest of his life telling what a hero he had been, he went to work. He now amazes a scientific gathering at Minneapolis, proving that he can divide the supposedly indivisible molecule of hydrogen gas into two different substances.

No money in it, as yet, but Doctor Taylor, of Princeton, calls it the 'greatest scientific discovery of 1929.'

Britain considers the situation safe and has withdrawn from Malta the battleship 'Royal Sovereign' that had been ordered to stand by for Palestine trouble.

Britain also has 'naval experts' that object to progress.

They object now to building a tunnel under the English Channel to connect France and England by rail and automobile.

Nevertheless the tunnel will be built.

It will cost $150,000,000 and employ 12,000 men for four years. With the arrival of the airship, Britain is no more an island than France or Germany, and no longer fears invasion by tunnel.

Big business grows bigger and bigger. Everybody was excited, and muckrakers raked furiously, when old Standard Oil was supposed to be worth half a billion. Now, split up, it's worth many billions. No one worries.

Highway sign painters and their customers make the country hideous. Illinois has a plan to fight that evil. Trees and shrubs will be planted close together along highways, beginning with places where offensive signboards are already located.

Other states might adopt the idea, not patented.

If you are a bear, waiting for that 'big smash in stocks' that is to make you rich, postpone your hopes awhile. Our Commerce Department says

NATIONAL HIGHWAY IS SOUGHT THROUGH CITY

VICTORIA MEETING OCTOBER 4 TO BE ATTENDED BY LOCAL MEN

Prospects for a national highway connection for Cameron with the road running over the old route once designated as the Sap Highway.

A two days fair at Victoria on Oct. 3 and 4 will enlist the attendance of a large number of county officials and representatives from Chambers of Commerce over the territory involved in the program.

The local Chamber of Commerce has named a committee to attend the meeting and the organization here will join in the movement to secure designation of this road and to assist in its completion.

W. M. Cobb, former editor of the Cameron Enterprise, brought this matter to the attention of the club at the meeting on last Monday night. 'It is the most important factor in larger transportation outlet for Cameron and the state of Texas that has been before the club in years. It means a great deal to Cameron and should be given every possible consideration. I hope to see a large number of Cameron business men go to the meeting in Victoria.'

According to Mr. Cobb, chairman Ross Sterling of the Highway Commission will deliver an address affecting this proposed route at the Victoria meeting.

County Judge Jeff T. Kemp and County Engineer A. F. Mitchell and Commissioners Fuchs and Hairston will attend the meeting and represent the court of Milam county.

The route according to Mr. Cobb in addition to following the Sap Highway designation through this and other adjoining counties will go from Cameron to LaGrange through Giddings and straight to Hallettsville, thence to Victoria and from Victoria straight to the Mexican border where it will connect with a National Mexican highway.

This road according to Mr. Cobb will have the importance of attracting the federal government to be available in cases of military operation or other transportation incident to government business.

Cameron is soon to have direct connection with Houston over a paved road which makes travel 35 miles short of the present route through Bryan.

Only a few links remain to be closed, one of them will be in Milam county to complete the important route through Cameron to Victoria and the Mexican border.

J. R. Hunt Collection of Indian Relics To Be On Display Here

J. R. Hunt who resides in the San Gabriel community was in Cameron Monday and while here called at the office of The Herald. He has an interesting collection of Indian relics which will soon be placed on display at The Herald office. A museum is being planned for Cameron and already a large number of interesting relics have been obtained.

Included in the display now are a large number of fossils, Indian relics and other interesting displays, practically all of them being found in Milam county.

People who wish to contribute to the museum for the educational benefit of the children and the people generally of this county are urged to send in their collections. It is known that a large number of fine collections of relics, especially Indian relics are to be found in this county and they cannot be brought to the attention of the people unless collected and placed on display at some central location where they may be seen.

Mrs. John Hays and two children, Johnnie Mae and Bobby, were called to Kereas last Friday because of the very serious illness of Mrs. Hays' mother, Mrs. G. W. Speed. They returned home Monday.

Everything is going admirably. For the last quarter of this year net earnings of corporations will run 25 per cent ahead of the same quarter in 1928. That means not a little money, but BILLIONS. We do things on a big scale.

With everything from lunch counters to steel mills incorporated, corporation earnings reflect national prosperity.

50 YEAR SENTENCE FOR MATTHEWS FOR KILLING

JURY FINDS HIM GUILTY OF SLAYING OF JOE HOSCH HERE ON JULY 6

Fred Matthews, 19 years old farmer of the Yarelton community, was given a 50 years sentence in the state penitentiary for the killing of Joe Hosch here on July 6, 1929 by a jury in District Court on last Friday.

The case was tried last week, consuming the entire week with Judge Jeffery of Lockhart on the bench in the absence of Judge Watson who was in New Braunfels to try Becky Rogers for the Buda bankrobbery.

Matthews received the verdict of the jury apparently unmoved and is now in the Milam county jail pending action of the appeal of his case which is now being prepared by his attorneys, E. A. Camp of Rockdale and E. A. Wallace of Cameron. Motion for a new trial was filed in district court following the verdict and appeal of the case will be made to the court at Austin.

District Attorney Jack Lewis led the prosecution in this case and was assisted by Chambers & Gillis.

HERNANDEZ CASE CALLED FOR MONDAY MORNING

YOUTHFUL NATIVE NATIVE OF PERU CHARGED WITH MURDER OF AGED GROCERYMAN

Antonio Hernandez, 22 year old native of Peru, charged by indictment with the killing of Josef Pavalak, aged groceryman in Cameron on July 30 will face trial in district court on Monday October 1 when his case is called.

A special venire of 100 men has been summoned for that date. The trial is expected to evoke a great deal of interest on account of the sensational manner in which the aged man met his death. He was beaten to death with a hammer as he sat in the store around the noon hour.

The store was robbed of a considerable sum in cash and the young man arrested in the late afternoon of the same day on the Maysfield road was found to possess a pistol and money taken from the store, according to Sheriff Blaylock and deputies.

Hernandez has been held in the Milam county jail without bond since the killing. He shows little interest in his case and will talk but little relative to his coming trial.

R. L. Batte Recovering From Car Wreck Injury

R. L. Batte who was injured in an automobile wreck near Itasca on the night of September 17 while returning to Cameron from Fort Worth, is recovering rapidly and his many friends will be pleased to note his progress.

The accident occurred when his car was struck by a truck loaded with negroes as both cars sought to pass a wagon on the road. Mr. Batte was severely injured, his right leg being broken near the knee. He will not be able to go about as usual for some weeks but will recover entirely from his injuries.

Blue Caldwell who was with Mr. Batte at the time of the accident was also severely injured.

Two negroes on the truck are said to have died as a result of the injuries sustained in the accident.

ROYAL P. JETER IS ROLL CALL CHAIRMAN

RED CROSS CHAPTER HOLDS MEETING TO PLAN DRIVE FOR MEMBERSHIP

Royal P. Jeter was named roll call chairman in Milam county for the annual Red Cross drive at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the district court room of the Milam county court house. An assisting committee for Mr. Jeter was appointed by the chairman of the meeting, the personnel of which is Mrs. J. P. Love, Mrs. W. O. Triggs, Miss Bess DuBois, Oxsheer Smith, Roy Baskin, and F. J. Beckerman. J. D. Baskin was elected chairman for disaster relief. The ultimate goal for this county in the roll call subscription has been set at $1500 and it was voted to accept the quota.

Hon. Graham Gillis, chairman of the Milam county chapter of the Red Cross, presided at the meeting. The speaker for the occasion was Mr. Tom Beason of St. Louis, a representative of the National Red Cross Association who outlined plans for the roll call and stressed the importance of Red Cross work.

'The war is not over,' Mr. Beason said, and then he went on to explain that in the United States there are 70,000 young men suffering as a result of the war, and that it will not be over until every man of these has passed away. It is the duty of the people here, he said, to see that these men are cared for.

The Red Cross, to which 52 nations belong, was originally formed to care for the wounded, sick and suffering on the battlefield. In time of peace it cares for ex-service men, disabled soldiers, and men in the regular army and navy. It attends to their wants and looks after the parents of these boys when they come to visit them. Mr. Beason explained that the Red Cross works with the American Legion as much as possible.

The roll call drive for 1929 will be held November 11-30. As is customary, one-half the membership fee will remain in the county and the other half will be sent to headquarters to keep the organization intact.

In connection with the naming of a chairman for disaster relief, Mr. Beason gave certain statistics, saying that in the United States last year 117 counties that had been visited by disasters were given Red Cross aid. There 364 counties affected by disasters, and 28 of them were visited twice. Whether we contribute to the roll call or not, in case of a disaster our county will receive aid if we request it, and it is the duty of the chairman of disaster relief to make such a request.

Reed Rogers has sailed aboard the Cripple Creek, a marine ship for Liverpool, England, according to advices received by his parents here this week, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Rogers.

Reed left Cameron some weeks ago to take passage for Europe, in a travel plan he has to see the continent and other places of interest in the world. The ship sailed from Houston and is loaded with 8000 bales of cotton for the center at Liverpool.

He left Cameron with Joe Charles Burnett, son of Joe Burnett of Milano who sailed earlier in the week on another ship for European ports.

CAMERON COTTON

Up to Wednesday night the Cameron Compress had received 9,120 bales of cotton from the 1929 crop as compared with 15,389 for the same date in 1928. This gives an index to the crop shortage in Milam county.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR CONCRETE ROAD

ARKANSAS FIRM IS LOW BIDDER
AND WORK BELIEVED TO
START WITHIN 60 DAYS

The State Highway Commission on Tuesday of this week opened bids on paving the Rockdale leg of Highway 43. The Inter-state Construction Company of Little Rock, Ark., was the low bidder and the contract was awarded that firm. The total amount of contract figures $254,422.96, for 13 8-10 miles of 18-foot concrete roadway, starting at the east precinct line near Milano and running to the west precinct line at Dry Brushy creek, about four miles this side of Thorn-dale. The square yard price is $1.62.

Next lowest bidder was the firm of Gibson and Gibson whose bid was $256,084.26. There were several other bidders, the highest being the firm of T. J. Jane Company at $323,322.07.

Probably the happiest man in Rockdale this week is H. C. Meyer, who is known from Austin to Longview as the 'daddy' of Highway No. 43. The awarding of this contract is the culmination of more than ten years' constant thought and work by Mr. Meyer. He it was who first broached the matter of a cross-state highway paralleling the I.-G. N. through Texas. Due to his indomitable energy and intelligently directed effort the highway was designated, and bit by bit the gaps in same are being closed. The chief obstacle was found in the lack of a bridge over the Brazos river. This bridge was finally financed and constructed. And now the work of concreting has been started, and the Rockdale road precinct has the honor of starting it.

Mr. Meyer has had able assistants in his labors, but if any one man in Texas deserves 'special mention' in connection with Highway 43 it is H. C. Meyer. It's his 'baby'; and Boy, Howdy! What a 'daddy' he has made! 'Of course, we do not know how soon the contractor will start work,' Mr. Meyer stated yesterday 'but we have every reason to believe that it will be within sixty days, and probably sooner than that.'—Rockdale Reporter.

Authentic Giantess

Ella Ewing, known as the Missouri giantess, was born in Scotland county, Missouri, of normal parents, and at birth weighed 6½ pounds. She grew abnormally between the ages of 8 and 22 years until she reached the enormous height of 8 feet 4 inches. She wore a number 24 shoe. It took 30 yards of silk to make a dress for her. When she stopped at hotels two ordinary beds had to be placed side by side so she could sleep across them. She made a fortune traveling about on exhibition and died at the age of 40 years.

Grades of Ebony

Ebony is the wood of a number of related trees, found in nearly all parts of the tropical world. Its northernmost range is northern Bengel, in India, and in localities of similar latitude and climate. The best grades are from a certain species native to southern India and Ceylon. Another much appreciated variety is from Madagascar. Other places where ebony grows are in Africa, especially Angola; in the East Indies; and, the poorer Jamaica variety, in the West Indies.

Clever and Dangerous

The centipede abroad in eastern lands is a formidable, and often poisonous, insect, but its wisdom might well instruct human beings of every age and clime. Afraid of the tarantula (a species of great spider), the centipede always takes care to build a cactus fence round itself ere it goes to sleep. It is most entertaining to watch the security of the centipede as they lie at ease, while their arch-enemies cannot crawl over the cactus which they will never tackle.

The Peaceful Celt

Two County Cork boys were in a mopping-up party that had followed the main assault. In a large shell hole they found a group of ten or twelve Germans sound asleep, apparently missed by the first wave.

"Well," said Sean, "shall we shoot 'em or stick 'em?"
"Ho, hum," said Denis, looking up at the sky, "it's a fine day. Let's wake 'em up and have a fight!"—Pullman News.

Minerva Darkey Kills Wife When She Wants Divorce

Robert Bailey, colored, working on the Minerva section gang, is in jail at Cameron charged with the murder of his wife. The woman was shot with a shotgun Saturday night about 8 o'clock, as she lay on a cot in the section bunk house at Minerva. Her head was almost entirely blown away and it is alleged that the shot was fired by her husband through a window.

The woman, Texana Bailey, went to Cameron Saturday afternoon and filed suit for divorce from Robert Bailey, alleging mistreatment and threats of killing. The same night Bailey went to the house and tried to talk her out of proceeding with the divorce. Upon her refusal to listen, it is alleged that he stepped outside and fired one shot through a window as the woman lay on a cot.

Immediately following the tragedy Bailey slipped away and walked thru the woods and fields to Cameron, where he surrendered to Sheriff Blaylock.—Rockdale Reporter.

Hot Check Artist Gets Away With $137.00 In Money

Several Thorndale business houses were the victims of a hot check artist here last Saturday evening after banking hours. Worthless and forged checks to the amount of approximately $137.00 were passed during his few hours work here. The names forged were those of Raymond Taylor and Oscar Knight, both well-known farmers of this community. The checks invariably were for odd cents and ranged from $20 up to more than $30 and

America's who's who ride on MILLER DE LUXE BALLOONS

AMERICA'S most talked of tire is the New Miller De Luxe Balloon. It is the chosen tire of those whose names are known throughout the land. A Rolls Royce roadster slips down 5th Avenue. A beautiful girl at the wheel. It's Marilyn Miller in her Miller equipped car.

A Packard Phaeton speeds up to the entrance to the Cardinals' Ball Park in St. Louis. It's Frank Frisch, popular second baseman, on time on Millers.

"Lopez Speaking," comes the voice of a great orchestra leader over the air from New York. Lopez keeps his appointments with the aid of a Miller equipped Lincoln.

And here's a long racy Cadillac roadster with a familiar face smiling over the top of low-set wheel. It's Irene Bordoni who feels perfectly safe with Millers "all around."

And so it goes—the parade of notables—riding on Miller De Luxe Balloons.

These are people who demand the finest tires money can buy. To them—quality is paramount. They cannot be worried with tires.

Let us show you the names of many more who ride on Miller De Luxe Balloons—and why these super tires are the choice of America's Who's Who.

Annual Banquet For Official Family of The Baptist Church

The annual banquet for the official family of the First Baptist church was held in the Sunday School annex last Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. With the new church year beginning on October 1, this banquet serves each year as a get-together meeting for the newly elected officers of the church.

Rev. R. E. Day, pastor of the First Baptist church at Bryan and for many years a close friend of Rev. Hutcherson spoke to the assembled group, using as his general theme the fact that we are all laborers together for God. Rev. Day was accompanied by Mr. Park, a member of the Bryan church, who was also a guest at the banquet. Other out of town guests were Rev. and Mrs. Robert Mayfield of Atlanta, Ga.

The banquet was prepared and served by the ladies of the church under the general supervision of Mrs. Clais Thomas, president of the W. M. U. Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Arthur Lee in vocal solo accompanied by Miss Helen Flinn with violin obligato by Mr. Lee and by Mr. Lee, who played a violin solo.

Following the address by Rev. Day those present signed cards making pledges toward supporting the budget for the coming year. The church, in addition to the regular budget, is attempting to pay the salary of a foreign missionary for one year, and this item is also included on the pledge card.

Lyons McCall Will Wed Lurline Betts at Mexia October 7

A news item in the Waco Times-Herald Sunday, announces the engagement of Lyons McCall of Cameron and Miss Lurline Betts, granddaughter of Mrs. N. P. The NEW Firestone Supreme Balloon

Is Writing New Tire History

HISTORY is made by those who create finer things, better things, more lasting things than have ever before been produced. The new Firestone Supreme Balloon is finer, larger, better, more rugged, more lasting than any tire that has ever before been offered to the American public—that is why it is writing new tire history. Here is a tire that will match your car, mile for mile, hour after hour with every sprint of the motor, every pressure of the brakes and every turn—over any and all kinds of roads, in all kinds of weather. It has appearance, quality, performance, dependability, safety and extra mileage; in fact, it has everything and more than the famous Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires that already hold all world records for speed, safety, economy and mileage. While its cost is higher, yet it is more economical because it brings you tire performance above and beyond anything the world has ever known. Come in today—you will like it the minute you see it. Liberal allowance made for your old tires.

Presbyterian Men Are Entertained By Womens Class

The east lawn at the Presbyterian church strung with colored lights, was the scene of a jolly party last Thursday evening, at which time members of the Women's Sunday School class entertained the Men's Bible Class and their teacher, Hon. Jack Lewis. Old-fashioned games and a spelling bee furnished diversion for the evening, at the close of which ice cream and cake were served.

The class of women, which is known as the Ebenezer Class, was named from the mission in Kentucky where Mrs. Mary Henderson so ably works. Before her departure for mission work, Mrs. Henderson was a member of the class, hence it was named in her honor. Mrs. W. L. Wilson is the very capable teacher.

Sheppard and Connally Assert Cotton Forecast Is Badly Overestimated

Washington, Sept. 23.—Charges that the United States crop reporting board, on Sept. 9, overestimated the probable yield of cotton by from 300,000 to 500,000 bales, were laid today before the secretary of agriculture by Senators Sheppard, democrat, and Connally, democrat, of Texas.

Protesting against the formula used by the board, the senators said:

"The recent speculative bear movement in cotton was based on the theory that the rains in the drouth section of the cotton belt, which occurred early in September, might increase the yield in that area enough to offset the losses of August.

"This attempt to discount future developments may account for the use of an inflated formula in preparing for the September estimate."

Hyde was requested to make public the extent to which the board attempted to anticipate future development in that estimate, in order to enable farmers to obtain an adequate price for their cotton such as the reduced supply outlook indicates they should receive.

Culture Club

In place of the regular 3:30 afternoon meeting of the Cameron Culture Club, a meeting was had last week at 8:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Tom Henderson. The club ladies, their husbands and a large number of friends were present. This night meeting was had that the members of the club and husbands and friends might have the rare pleasure of listening to a paper by Mr. John C.

Oxenford on 'Lady Macbeth.' Mr. Oxenford, a citizen of Cameron is an Englishman by birth, a gentleman of exceptional talents, and has a thorough, classical education. His paper was the stroke of a genius, so much admired. He received a rising vote of thanks from the club ladies.

Four of the club ladies had a debate: 'Resolved, That the workings of conscience were greater in Macbeth than in Mrs. Macbeth.' The visiting husbands and friends of the club were to give a sealed vote after the debate for the side in their judgment which had best proved the point in question. Mrs. Wm. Simms and Mrs. Wm. Henderson were for the affirmative, and Mrs. Jeff Kemp and Mrs. Jeff Hefley, were for the negative. The count of the vote proved two to one for the negative.

Smart Set

Miss Lena Triggs delightfully entertained the Smart Set last Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. Six interesting games of progressive 42 were played. After examining the score cards Miss Florine Sampson proved to be the lucky winner of the first prize, a dainty white silk fan. Mrs. Poteet was given the guest prize, a beautiful blue silk handkerchief case, and the consolation was given to Mrs. Monta Moore. After the games a two course luncheon was served. The following were the club's visitors: Mesdames M. J. Moore, Geo. A. Thomas, John Poteet, Jeff Hefley, and Miss Mary Rogers.

Senior Accountancy Course at Tyler Leads To C. P. A. Degree

Taken as a whole—man for man and woman for woman—it is doubtful if there is a profession in the world which can show such a large average income as accountancy. There are many accountants—especially those who have attained Certified Public Accountant degrees—who earn and collect salaries and fees which enable their incomes to rank with those of old, old professions. The United States Steel Company paid a firm of accountants a quarter of a million dollars just for designing its accounting system. Individual accounting fees running from $10,000 to $70,000 are not at all unusual.

More and more young people are coming to a realization of the fact that Accountancy offers unusual opportunities. Schools are offering special courses for accountancy. The Tyler Commercial College at Tyler, Texas, is one of the first business schools in the South to add to the curriculum a Senior Accountancy Course which prepares the student for the C. P. A. degree.

The Senior Accounting Course offered at Tyler is endorsed by the Committee of Education of the American Association of Public Accountants. In speaking of the course the committee said: "It is a Constructive Accounting Course which consists of an exposition of accounting principles beginning with fundamentals and working from a constructive standpoint towards the most advanced requirements. This course includes problems, quiz-questions and practice sets correlated with lectures on the fundamental principles of theory. This course is designed to prepare students for the general practice of accountancy, either in public or private, and to pass C. P. A. examinations. This course includes a training in law and economics and is based upon sound pedagogical principles."

The Senior Accounting Course may be taken at Tyler school by only those who have a high school education or its equivalent. A good educational background is absolutely essential.

If you are interested in preparing for the C. P. A. degree; if you really want to make your mark in the world write to the Tyler Commercial College for Book Number 64. If you are interested in other courses such as

Secretarial, Banking, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Stenotypy, Radio, Telegraphy, Cotton Classing, Civil Service, or other courses, get a copy of 'Achieving Success in Business.' No obligations, of course. Books and information are free. Mail the coupon. TYLER COMMERCIAL COLLEGE Tyler, Texas

Hudson-Essex Now Offers Excellent Financing Plans

The Hudson Motor Car Company announces the completion of an arrangement with Commercial Investment Trust for the financing of sales of Hudson and Essex cars and Dover commercial cars in the chief export markets of the world. The volume expected annually by C. I. T. under the contract is about $20,000,000.

The arrangement is known as the H. M. C. Export Finance Plan and follows in general the style of the company's arrangements for financing sales to domestic distributors and dealers. Rates have been established on very favorable bases, Hudson officials declare.

'The H. M. C. Export Finance Plan is the result of several years' intensive study of all existing forms of overseas financing,' said J. S. Draper, Hudson's General Export Manager. 'It is adaptable to all markets and puts at the disposal of our overseas organization a definite means of surmounting one of the biggest obstacles in the path to easier sales. It is a real contribution to the development of overseas trade—a service to the buying public and to the Hudson-Essex organization."

Under the terms of the agreement, Commercial Investment Trust will handle Hudson-Essex and Dover business through its offices in the following cities: Brussels, Belgium; Berlin, Germany; London, England; Copenhagen, Denmark; Calcutta, India; Sydney, Adelaide, Perth, Brisbane and Melbourne, Australia; Christchurch, New Zealand; Buenos Aires, Argentina; Sao Paulo, Brazil; Santiago, Chile; Christobal, Canal Zone; Mexico City, Mexico; San Juan, Porto Rico; Havana, Cuba and Johannesburg, South Africa.

Additional offices will be opened by C. I. T. as overseas business warrants.

Here we find, featured as new, such advantages as radiator shutters—first introduced and for years standard with Hudson.

Here we find Hudson type brakes, Hudson type shock absorbers. Counterbalanced crankshafts are much to the fore, which seek to approximate the efficiency and smoothness of the Super-Six principle.

Nothing has been produced to touch its value and price advantage. It is still the master car in performance and reliability.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH MILAM COUNTY?

Mailing a clipping from a daily paper telling of the establishment of another cheese factory in this section of the State, an anxious subscriber propounds this query to The Reporter: 'What's the matter with Rockdale and Milam county that we can't have a factory of this sort?'

The answer is apparently simple: 'Quite evidently the people don't want it.' A milk plant was established in Cameron less than a year ago and died for lack of patronage. It is alleged that mismanagement had something to do with its quick demise, but certainly lack of raw product was the important factor which hastened its untimely end.

There are not enough good cows producing rich enough milk in the county to support a milk factory, and there probably never will be as long as the cattle tick is left to do its deadly work on imported cattle. Milam county will never get rid of the cattle tick until the people of the county want such action taken.

This year there is a war on in Milam county between the fever tick and the boll weevil to see which pest can do the county the greatest amount of harm. The Reporter hopes the boll weevil wins the contest. Maybe it can then be demonstrated that the only way to improve farm conditions in this county is to quit planting so much cotton, get rid of the fever tick (which is an easy matter) and go in for more and better Jersey cows, hogs, chickens and turkeys. The Cow, the Sow and the Hen, will solve our problem if we'll let 'em. But as long as our farming population continues to depend upon cotton, and hugs to its bosom the cattle tick, just so long will Milam county be beset with boll weevil and 'hard times.'

It isn't the lack of capital that keeps Rockdale from having a cheese factory; it's lack of cows. The only way to do a thing right is to start right. The way to start Milam county on a clear road to its rightful claim of 'matchless' qualities is to accept the State and Federal authorities' assistance and direction in eliminating the fever tick, once and for all. Then can come a systematic building-up of the dairy herds of the county, and in due time will follow an outlet for the product, such as is found in cheese factories, creameries and milk plants. Then also will follow freedom from enslavement at the hands of the cotton devil.

Incidentally Lee and Burleson counties will have to fall in line.—Rockdale Reporter.

This may be old stuff, but it is interesting. We observed a stream of ants running across our window sill yesterday. Curiosity prompted us to note the time required for these particular ants to travel a foot. We found they averaged a foot in 5 seconds. This would make 12 feet a minute. We got to figuring some more. These particular ants measured five to the inch. At the same proportion of size and speed the average automobile if it could travel as fast as an ant travels would move along at the rate of 90 miles an hour. The ants in question were engaged in the prosaic task of moving their eggs from one location to another and appeared to be in no particular hurry as they appeared to have time to stop and gossip with each other at frequent intervals. We have no doubt that if an ant would really get down to business and show some speed it could easily hang up a record in comparison with which a modern automobile would have to travel 200 miles an hour. Beside the ant, the airplane is still a blundering moth and the record breaking steamships, slow moving tortises.

In our younger days we fell, on a number of occasions for the book agent who sold us a set of books on the installment plan. The thought of the collector coming every month fretted us to the extent that about the second trip of the collector we paid the whole account. There is something about the thought of a collector coming every month for the installment that puts another worry into the scheme of things. Installment buying is all right for a home or the solid necessary things of life, but we can easily imagine how one's entire peace of mind could be destroyed with the ever present haunting thought of a collector coming every week for a 30 cent payment on a straw hat or a pair of oxfords. In commenting on the tendency toward installment buying one has said, 'It was once said you had to make a better mouse trap but now all you need to do is to neglect your installments and the world will beat a path to your door.'

The human race is to blame for all the evils that overtake it. A man who constantly over eats is going to have to pay for it all sooner or later with some kind of illness or bodily affliction. A man who sits in a draft will pay for it with a cold. An unsanitary condition will always breed disease. In the same measure the race is to be blamed for the economic ills that have overtaken it. People will patronize a business until it gets a strangle hold on the nation and then howl their heads off about trusts. The human race has created every trust or monopoly that threatens individual enterprise. The human race is like a child. It squalls for candy until it makes itself sick and then it turns squalls for a doctor and blames providence and the conditions of the times.

Filling stations as a rule set the example in the town for well kept premises.

'There is this to say on this new currency business. It will not be necessary now that the new size is in circulation, to dispose of the old model at a loss.

The United States and Canada exported last year 586,498 automobiles which was almost as many as the rest of the world produces. America is by long odds the home of the motor car.

The worst thing that can happen to a young man, rightly believes the editor of the Altoona Tribune, is to have a mother or a sister who hates to see him work.

The Kansas City Kansan classes as an unsubstantiated rumor the announcement that the likeness of Salmon P. Chase appears on the new $10,000 bills.

SCHOOL AT GAUSE OPENED FOR NEW TERM

PROGRAM MARKS OPENING OF NEW SESSION AS BELL CALLS CHILDREN

The school bell rang Monday, September 23, welcoming a large body of pupils, a number of patrons and visitors. At nine o'clock all assembled in the auditorium for the opening exercises which were the best we have ever had.

After invocation by F. M. Hauptfleisch and all singing America, H. O. Lee, a member of the board of trustees introduced our new superintendent, F. J. Cook. Mr. Cook in turn introduced the other teachers who were Miss Roberta Holden of Franklin, who has already done four years of very satisfactory work in the Gause school, the teacher of English; Miss Florence Hilliard of Rosebud, who was a member of the faculty last year, Spanish and history teacher; Miss Mary Sue Walker of Waco, history teacher; Mrs. G. R. Varner of Gause, a member of the faculty last year, the fourth and fifth grade; Miss Anna Marie Barnes of San Marcos, the second and third grades; Mrs. F. J. Cook the primary room. Mr. Cook will teach mathematics.

Miss Myrl Hickman, a high school student, gave a very beautiful number on the piano. Miss Walker, a member of the faculty and expression teacher, won the favor of many by reading 'My Little White Rose.'

F. M. Hauptfleisch, representing the patrons, gave a very interesting talk. Mr. Walker of Waco, a retired professor and the father of one of our teachers, Miss Walker, and Rev.

Weeks, pastor of the Methodist church both gave very interesting and inspiring addresses.

After the program the pupils assembled at their respective rooms where they received their books.

Everything being in readiness, a group of one hundred and fifty enthusiastic pupils and with such an able faculty to guide them we feel that we will have the best school ever had.

INTROSPECTION

By Elizabeth Larocque

There is no prayer upon my lips
Nor is there any in my heart—
I cannot touch my finger tips
And kneeling bid all pain depart;
Nor ask of God what I would gain—
Nay! all my strength must be within
In that strange place where soul meets brain.

If this be evil I must sin.
And yet—it's strange—if I could pray
What would I ask? I do not know.
There is not aught for which I'd say,
'Ah, God in Heaven, I want it so!'—
Unless perhaps it could be this—
To find a dream, to see a star,
And know the strange unequalled bliss
Of reaching out—for things, too far

CARD OF THANKS

I want to express to my friends my sincere appreciation and deep feeling of gratitude for their many beautiful remembrances and their kind words of sympathy, while I am confined to the hospital. My family and I are grateful for these many friendly ministrations and I hope to be able to thank you each personally when I am up and about in the next few weeks.

BILIOUS, DIZZY

Lady Says She Suffered Much Discomfort Until She Tried Black-Draught; Found It Brought Relief.

Townville, S. C.—'I had a bilious spell. I would get very dizzy and have such a bad taste in my mouth,' says Mrs. Bertha Whitfield, of this place.

'When I would stoop over, I felt like I was going over on my head. When I would get up mornings, I felt as tired as when I went to bed. A friend told me how she had been helped by taking Black-Draught, and how she kept it in her home. So I thought I would try it, any way, which I did, and from then on I have used Black-Draught when I feel bad, get up tired, or feel that I need anything. Now I recommend it to my friends.'

'If I get tired and sluggish, feeling like I must sit around when I have lots to do, I take Black-Draught. A few doses seem to be what it takes to cleanse my system of impurities that may cause this trouble.'

Black-Draught is made from finely powdered herbs and roots carefully combined, weighed and packaged by automatic machinery.

Easy to take—no disagreeable after-effects.
Sold in 25-cent and $1.00 packages at all druggists. Try it. NC-219

Fuel Consumption Is Important Factor In Car Operation

Detroit, Sept. 23.—Millions of dollars could be saved annually by the automobile-owning public through a more strict observance of the factors that control the gasoline mileage offered by the average automobile, it was revealed in a survey on fuel economy completed today by the Chevrolet Motor Company.

A gain of from two to five miles on the gallon of gas could be effected, on the average, it was shown, if the motorist paid strict attention to the elements that govern fuel consumption.

The matter of economy has always been a factor of the uppermost importance with Chevrolet in the designing of its cars. Having brought the mileage to the highest point ever offered in a six cylinder car, Chevrolet sought to corral in this survey, the many seemingly unimportant details which through carelessness or indifference on the part of the driver, cut down the mileage that might be obtained through more intelligent handling of the car.

Manufacturers have been doing their utmost to make gains in the direction of greater mileage and now it is felt that with greater cooperation from the driver, motorists may ride millions of miles yearly at no extra fuel cost if the matter of watchfulness can make a sufficiently strong appeal.

Just how this attention to fuel economy brings its reward is illustrated in records of performances coming in to the company's offices, which show that although the Chevrolet six is expected to run approximately 20 miles to the gallon, motorists in various sections of the country are getting 23, 24 and 25 miles through just a little added attention to the matter.

The majority of items to be watched are rather obvious to the average adequate appreciation of their importance, are commonly overlooked.

The survey sets down specifically a number of factors, which, if observed, should increase your mileage two to five miles to the gallon. They are:

1. When standing or waiting for the light to change, don't race your motor.
2. When you are to make a stop of more than a minute, turn off your motor.
3. Don't drive at excessive speeds unless the occasion demands. High speed traveling burns more gas.
4. Remember that the faster you drive the more gas you consume. So when you find that you are about out of gas and are heading for a gas station, take it slowly and your chances for negotiating the distance will be greater.
5. When starting watch the choke. Don't drive with the choke out a moment more than necessary.
6. Be sure that your brakes are not dragging. This cuts down your mileage. Get your brakes inspected frequently.
7. Have your valves ground when they need it.
8. See that the idling adjustment on your carburetor is set at the proper point so that the mixture is not too rich. If it is not at the proper point it gives you inefficient idling performance and wastes gas.

9. Don't fill your gas tank full to the cap, some will escape through the vent in the cap.

10. Don't ride the clutch.

11. Watch gas line for leaks at joints. Check it periodically to see that fittings are tight.

12. Be sure that spark is in fully advanced position.

13. Avoid excessive use of brakes in traffic.

Observance of these suggestions, the survey points out, will save money for the motorist and, add considerable mileage to your driving and reduce the number of necessary stops at the gasoline station.

You get more for your dollar in America's finest medium-priced automobile

Today's Oakland All-American Six stands out unmistakably as America's finest medium-priced automobile. Its value supremacy has been established by facts revealed in comparison of the All-American Six with twenty other medium-priced automobiles. Let us go over all the results of this comparison with you. When you have seen how on every basis of comparison the All-American Six towers above its field—you will agree with us that you get more for your dollar in America's finest medium-priced automobile.

Proof of Oakland Value Superiority

The following facts were obtained from a comparison of the Oakland All-American Six with 20 other medium-priced automobiles. All told, 878 individual comparisons were made. Of these, Oakland proved to be distinctly superior in 451 or 51.37 per cent. The 20 cars combined were at best equal to Oakland on 382 or 43.50 per cent. And 13 of the 20 were higher-priced than Oakland.

WHEELBASE

Only one car as low-priced as Oakland has a wheelbase as long as Oakland's, which is 117 inches. That car requires a turning circle to the left of 42 feet as compared with Oakland's 36 feet. Six higher-priced cars have shorter wheelbases.

FISHER BODY

Only Oakland and two other cars in the field offer bodies by Fisher. And one of the two is nearly $100 higher in price than Oakland. Of the 18 cars which have less-known bodies, 11 are priced above the All-American Six.

BRAKES

Only Oakland and one other car in its field use the fine type of brakes which Oakland employs. And no car in the field equals Oakland's 290 square inches of brake band area. Oakland's separate emergency brake operates on the transmission. Seven cars in the field have no separate emergency brakes, although three of them exceed Oakland in price.

PISTON DISPLACEMENT

Oakland's 228 cubic inch piston displacement is greater than 12 of the 20 cars in its price field. Of the 8 remaining cars, 7 are much higher priced than Oakland.

Oakland All-American Six, $1145 to $1375, f. o. b. Pontiac, Mich., plus delivery charges. Spring covers, Levee Shock Absorbers included in list prices. Bumpers and rear fender guards extra. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

$1145

Consider the delivered price as well as the list (f. o. b.) price when comparing automobile values. . . . Oakland-Pontiac delivered prices include only authorized charges for freight and delivery and the charge for any additional accessories or financing desired.

Kentucky Lady Was Weak And Felt Miserable. Dizzy Spells Quit After She Took Cardui.

Danville, Ky.—"For a long time, I suffered with severe headaches and pains in my sides and back," says Mrs. Lottie Smallwood, residing at 116 Fourth Street, this city.

"I was very weak, and just not able to go about or do my work. I just felt miserable.

"I was all out of heart. I would have spells when my head would hum, and my feet and hands were clammy and cold.

"I would be so dizzy, I would fall. I had read of Cardui and what it had done for others, and so I, too, began taking it. I had been aching and hurting awfully.

"After I took Cardui, I quit having the dizzy spells. I kept on taking Cardui, and saw then that I was being helped. I was not nearly so weak, and from that time I have felt better. I took six bottles in all."

Cardui is a purely vegetable remedy and contains nothing harmful or injurious. It may be safely taken by a delicate young girl as well as by a feeble old lady.

Cardui has been in use by women for over 50 years, and great numbers of women have reported that it helped them back to health.

GEORGETOWN GIRL AND MINERVA YOUNG MAN MARRIED TUESDAY; TO MAKE THEIR HOME AT MINERVA

(Rockdale Reporter)

An outstanding social event and one which held every one's interest took place Thursday afternoon when Mrs. J. C. Wallace complimented her niece, Miss Robbie Isaacs, whose marriage to Mr. Robert Swain will take place on September 17, with a miscellaneous shower.

The home had been made attractive for the occasion, a color scheme of pink and white being used in the decorations. The dining table was centered with a crystal vase holding pink roses and ferns. Baskets and bowls of roses of the same hue were placed throughout the house.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by the hostess and honoree, who led them to the guest book presided over by Miss Johnnie Cone, of Rockdale.

When all were seated, Master Chas. Hickman Trotter, in the role of a Western Union Messenger boy, entered; and in his sweet childish voice announced, 'A telegram for Miss Robbie.' On opening it, Miss Isaacs found the following message: 'Dan Cupid has a secret to unfold, of a legend very, very old; at the foot of the rainbow a pot of gold. You will find the truth of the fable, by gently winding up the cable.' The attached cable led the bride-elect to the living room where a beautiful rainbow fashioned of crepe paper spanned the entrance. The mellow glow of the sun peering through the west windows accentuated the beauty of the arrangement. At the foot of the rainbow was the traditional 'pot of gold' which, on this occasion, proved to be many beautiful and useful gifts.

While the honoree, seated in a chair entwined with pink and white crepe paper, admired and displayed her lovely gifts, the hostess, assisted by Misses Jennie Bell Cone and Lucinda Mae Isaacs, served delicious refreshments consisting of cherry-nut cream and angel squares, carrying out the color motif of pink and white.

The plate favors were pink Killarney buds tied with satin bows of white. Tiny brides, on which the date of the wedding was written, were presented to the guests. At this time, Mrs. Will H. McCown gave the following toast to the bride to be:

A young man named Bobbie;
Fell in love with a girl named Robbie
Said he, 'My dear I cannot live without you.'

Said she, 'Why sir—you don't have to!
So, on Matrimony's deep blue sea
Soon a-sailing they will be;
But I'll wager, ere the voyage is thru
She'll be captain of the 'crew.'

Now we've all wondered how she captured Swain;
But since meeting her, 'tis very plain
With her laughing eyes, she stole his heart;

From her sunny smile, he could not part.
With her manner so charming and petite—
Soon she had him at her feet.

So—here's to you—lovely bride-to-be
May life hold much in store for thee.
Here's good wishes for you galore—
May happiness be yours forever more.

Miss Isaacs gave an appropriate response to the toast.

Miss Marguerite White, accompanied by Miss Doreen Orr, played a number of beautiful violin selections during the afternoon.

Michalk and Clark To Drill Well On The Gilchrist Tract

Michalk and Clark, original discoverers of oil on the Johnson lease and whose efforts have caused much development in this territory, have taken a lease on acreage on the J. M. Gilchrist home place and have completed the erection of their derrick preparatory to making a test on this location. Their location is about 1-2 to 3-4 mile from their original discovery well.

Diggs No. 1 on the Holman tract about one mile north of town is drilling between 360 and 400 feet. A water line was laid from this test to the Brushy Creek to furnish water for the drilling.

E. L. Chapman, who took over the original Michalk-Clark well on the Johnson lease is setting 5 3-16 inch casing preparatory to giving the well a test as to its capacity and whether it can be made to pay. In the meantime Mr. Chapman is planning to start No. 2 on the Johnson lease. This location will be in close proximity to the old well.

Burkhead's Weigmann No. 1 is now on the pump and the outcome of this test will be determined within the next few days. Much expense has been borne by the promoters to make a producer out of this test and it is hoped that their efforts will be crowned with success.—Thorndale Champion.

KEITH ELECTRIC CO.
Cameron, Texas

a Policy and a Pledge

Regarding ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

FOR many years this Company was concerned with only one problem—that of delivering dependable and economical electric energy to the home.

Then the electric appliance—of one type and another—began to play a very important part in electric service to the home. This condition brought a further and deeper responsibility to this Company—that of supplying the proper kind of electric appliances to its customers.

An electric appliance for the home should do certain definite things. First it should be efficient; that is, give the most service for the least cost price. Second, it should use the least amount of electric energy in operation, and should stand up for the longest period of service.

It became necessary, then, for this Company to adopt a very rigid policy in the matter of selecting and offering appliances for sale to its customers. So, throughout the years this Company has maintained a testing laboratory through which each appliance must pass with creditable performance before it is offered to our customers.

You can depend absolutely on the appliances which we offer to you through our stores. Each one is the best of its kind. They have been carefully tested for quality, workmanship, economy of operation and are backed by the reputation of this Company, as well as by the manufacturer of the various appliances. Enjoy the fullest use of electric service with the best of electric appliances.

Charges of Arson Against Becky Are Dropped by Court

Georgetown, Texas, Sept. 23.—On motion of the state an arson charge against Mrs. Rebecca Bradley Rogers was dismissed in district court here today.

The motion was granted by Judge J. B. Price of Brenham, who presided in place of Judge Harry Dolan, disqualified by connection with the case as county attorney.

The former University of Texas co-ed was charged with burning a vacant house in Roundrock, Sept. 10, 1926. In a previous trial the state contended the dwelling was set afire by Mrs. Rogers to attract citizens away from the business section in order that she might hold up the Farmers' State Bank. The trial, held in September, 1927, resulted in a hung jury.

In a trial at New Braunfels last week on a charge of robbing the Farmers' National Bank of Buda, Texas, a jury was also unable to reach a verdict. It was Mrs. Rogers' fourth trial in connection with the two charges.

District Judge John Watson returned Sunday from New Braunfels where he presided at the trial there last week of Becky Rogers for the robbery of the Buda State Bank. The jury could not agree, the count being 9 to 3 for acquittal. It is thought the case may be finally dismissed following the statement of District Attorney Blundell who doubts the wisdom of another prosecution.

Hamer Called on to Show Cards in Probe at Borger

Borger, Tex., Sept. 23.—The force of Texas rangers investigating the assassination here Sept. 13 of District Attorney John A. Holmes was increased to eight tonight with the arrival of four additional rangers, M. T. Gonzales, W. H. Kirby, W. H. Purvis and Dott Smith. Should Captain Hammer return to the investigation, the force would number nine.

The Borger Daily Herald, in a front page editorial, called upon Captain Hamer to prove his charges that he had 'found the worst bit of organized crime' in Borger he had seen in years. Sheriff Joe Ownby characterized Hamer's statement as a 'lie.'

Hamer in a recent statement in Austin to Governor Moody declared that in his investigation of the assassination of District Attorney John A. Holmes in Borger, Sept. 13, he had found the worst bit of organized crime he had encountered in 25 years.

Male Critic Severe on Work of Women Poets

If an effort were made to determine what elements constitute feminine poetry, one would name first its chief characteristic — subjectivity. When a woman writes poetry her emotions generally center around herself and she is only interested in the world as something that reflects favorably or unfavorably on her own individuality. It is usually favorable and when unfavorable, wailingly agonized, writes Herbert G. Brunchen, in the North American Review.

As an artist it is rarely that a woman can translate her emotions objectively; in other words to comprehend the world and the human beings that are part of it, not as they touch herself, but as they affect the great lot of humanity.

Feminine poetry, moreover, when it is cheerful, is generally so in a superficial way; it is too often over-refined through an erroneous and typically feminine conception of the difference between refinement and truth. It is embroidery poetry, very apt to be sentimental and cloyingly sweet.

And only in rare instances does one find a poem written by a woman where the unpleasantness and even tragic truths of human relationships have not been carefully censored or glossed over.

Cultivate Serenity to Fight Mental Fatigue

Mental fatigue cuts down efficiency and spoils happiness. American life with its high-power speed for both work and play produces an unusual amount of mental fatigue. To aid in the cultivation of more serene habits, Dr. Lauren H. Smith, writing in Hygeia Magazine, makes the following suggestions:

1. When we work, let us keep our interest in it and make it pleasurable.

2. When we play, let us enter into it for all it is worth without regard for anything else.

3. When we rest and sleep, let us turn the mind and body loose to themselves and let them do what they will. Learn to rest the mind by leaving the mind alone.

4. When we think, let us make a decision and carry it out. If we decide incorrectly it can be reconsidered later.

5. When we are very tired, let us not permit a temporary or extreme emotional reaction to drive us into an act that will have permanent results.

Nation's Honey Production

In the United States the greater part of the honey produced is alfalfa honey from the western states, where several million dollars worth is sold every year. Sweet clover, white sage and other mountain flowers, also contribute to the western supply. In the central states it is white clover, sweet clover, Spanish needle and heartsease honey. In the southern states, cotton, mesquite, horsegram and sweet clover and in the eastern states, northern states and Canada, buckwheat and white clover are the leading honey flowers. Orange blossoms, clover, aster and basswood complete the list.

Easy to Don Coat

Two men were chatting. "Why is it that Greeks and Italians can get into a coat easier than anyone else?" asked one. "I don't know," replied the careful one. "Did you ever notice the graceful overhead sweep of their arm as they slip on the coat with one complete motion?" queried the first speaker. The other admitted that he had noticed the phenomenon in question. "It's because their Roman and Grecian ancestors used that method in slipping on their togas and they haven't gotten over the idea," asserted Speaker No. 1.—Detroit News.

Ladies of Long Ago

The ladies to whom the troubadours sang had invariably hair of the color of flax, as soft as silk, and shimmering with a sheen of the finest gold. In ancient Spanish romances the hair is either of pure gold, or definitely fair. In ancient Germany, Gretchen had to have 'fair hair, like gold; long bright, and curly.' There is a famous description of a French lady of the Thirteenth century. 'Her hair had the brilliance of gold, and was twisted into rebellious curls'—so evidently permanent waving was known.

Tomahawk Not Indian

The tomahawk, which is sometimes considered a weapon peculiar to the American Indian, was originally a club carved into some convenient shape. It was most commonly a stout stick about three feet in length, terminating in a large knob, wherein a projecting piece of flint was often inserted. The hatchets of the Indians that are now called tomahawks are a European device and the stone hatchets so often found in our fields, called by the same term were not military weapons but mechanical tools.

Gas Freezes Fire

Carbon dioxide, which is expelled from your body whenever you exhale, has been put to use by the Los Angeles fire department to put out fires in which streams of water are of little use, as in chemical and oil fires. The gas is carried in high pressure cylinders and when released a cloud of dry ice like that used in certain kinds of refrigeration is squirted over the fire. This reduces the temperature and prevents oxygen from reaching the blaze, thus smothering it.

Mr. Mellon Borrows
A Better War
Mussolini Preparing
Baltimore 200 Years Old

Secretary Mellon, needing $500,000,000 for Uncle Sam's use, invited subscriptions to treasury certificates. He was offered $1,486,000,000, almost a $1,000,000,000 more than he needed.

By the way, he did not pay 9 per cent, or the federal reserve 6 per cent discount rate, either.

It looks like a real fight by Standard and other big oil companies against the British 'Shell' invading these United States.

Standard Oil cuts prices. Shell says, 'I call you' and also cuts prices. Interesting war and a better kind, with dollars instead of men lost.

In his government Mussolini held eight posts, minister of foreign affairs, minister of marine, colonies, war, aviation, etc.

Now the powerful Italian resigns seven of his cabinet offices, remaining premier and minister of the interior only.

The king announces the changes by royal decree. Mussolini told him what to announce.

The years are passing. Mussolini knows it, and seeks to build a government machine that will survive. The Italian question is 'After Mussolini, what?'

Lord Rothermere in a signed article asks Britain to give up the mandate and withdraw from Jerusalem. He thinks Jews would prefer 'a national home in the United States to patriarchal poverty in Palestine.'

A majority of Jews do prefer such a home. There are only 2000 American Jews among 160,000 in Palestine.

But for a minority there is a passionate desire to restore Jerusalem. It may not be understood by a Scotchman not interested in returning to Edinburgh. But a Frenchman who never loses the memory of Paris understands it.

Baltimore, planning to be the country's greatest airplane city, celebrated its two hundredth birthday with flags, speeches and warships, on water and in the air.

More than one hundred years ago the guns of Fort McHenry kept the British fleet from descending on Baltimore. 'The Star-Spangled Banner' was written to celebrate that event. Baltimore, two hundred years old, is younger and more energetic than ever.

Twenty-seven European nations are working at a plan called 'the United States of Europe plan.' Germany says she will join but not if there is an 'anti-American pact.'

That's another hint to President Hoover, and others responsible, to make this country strong enough to take care of itself.

A young German, J. F. Bohnhoeffer, climbed out of the trenches, took off his steel helmet when the war ended, aged seventeen.

Instead of spending the rest of his life telling what a hero he had been, he went to work. He now amazes a scientific gathering at Minneapolis, proving that he can divide the supposedly indivisible molecule of hydrogen gas into two different substances.

No money in it, as yet, but Doctor Taylor, of Princeton, calls it the 'greatest scientific discovery of 1929.'

Britain considers the situation safe and has withdrawn from Malta the battleship 'Royal Sovereign' that had been ordered to stand by for Palestine trouble.

Britain also has 'naval experts' that object to progress.

They object now to building a tunnel under the English Channel to connect France and England by rail and automobile.

Nevertheless the tunnel will be built.

It will cost $150,000,000 and employ 12,000 men for four years. With the arrival of the airship, Britain is no more an island than France or Germany, and no longer fears invasion by tunnel.

Big business grows bigger and bigger. Everybody was excited, and muckrakers raked furiously, when old Standard Oil was supposed to be worth half a billion. Now, split up, it's worth many billions. No one worries.

Highway sign painters and their customers make the country hideous. Illinois has a plan to fight that evil. Trees and shrubs will be planted close together along highways, beginning with places where offensive signboards are already located.

Other states might adopt the idea, not patented.

If you are a bear, waiting for that 'big smash in stocks' that is to make you rich, postpone your hopes awhile. Our Commerce Department says

NATIONAL HIGHWAY IS SOUGHT THROUGH CITY

VICTORIA MEETING OCTOBER 4
TO BE ATTENDED BY LOCAL MEN

Prospects for a national highway connection for Cameron with the road running over the old route once designated as the Sap Highway.

A two days fair at Victoria on Oct. 3 and 4 will enlist the attendance of a large number of county officials and representatives from Chambers of Commerce over the territory involved in the program.

The local Chamber of Commerce has named a committee to attend the meeting and the organization here will join in the movement to secure designation of this road and to assist in its completion.

W. M. Cobb, former editor of the Cameron Enterprise, brought this matter to the attention of the club at the meeting on last Monday night. 'It is the most important factor in larger transportation outlet for Cameron and the state of Texas that has been before the club in years. It means a great deal to Cameron and should be given every possible consideration. I hope to see a large number of Cameron business men go to the meeting in Victoria.'

According to Mr. Cobb, chairman Ross Sterling of the Highway Commission will deliver an address affecting this proposed route at the Victoria meeting.

County Judge Jeff T. Kemp and County Engineer A. F. Mitchell and Commissioners Fuchs and Hairston will attend the meeting and represent the court of Milam county.

The route according to Mr. Cobb in addition to following the Sap Highway designation through this and other adjoining counties will go from Cameron to LaGrange through Giddings and straight to Hallettsville, thence to Victoria and from Victoria straight to the Mexican border where it will connect with a National Mexican highway.

This road according to Mr. Cobb will have the importance of attracting the federal government to be available in cases of military operation or other transportation incident to government business.

Cameron is soon to have direct connection with Houston over a paved road which makes travel 35 miles short of the present route through Bryan.

Only a few links remain to be closed, one of them will be in Milam county to complete the important route through Cameron to Victoria and the Mexican border.

J. R. Hunt Collection of Indian Relics To Be On Display Here

J. R. Hunt who resides in the San Gabriel community was in Cameron Monday and while here called at the office of The Herald. He has an interesting collection of Indian relics which will soon be placed on display at The Herald office. A museum is being planned for Cameron and already a large number of interesting relics have been obtained.

Included in the display now are a large number of fossils, Indian relics and other interesting displays, practically all of them being found in Milam county.

People who wish to contribute to the museum for the educational benefit of the children and the people generally of this county are urged to send in their collections. It is known that a large number of fine collections of relics, especially Indian relics are to be found in this county and they cannot be brought to the attention of the people unless collected and placed on display at some central location where they may be seen.

Mrs. John Hays and two children, Johnnie Mae and Bobby, were called to Kerens last Friday because of the very serious illness of Mrs. Hays' mother, Mrs. G. W. Speed. They returned home Monday.

Everything is going admirably. For the last quarter of this year net earnings of corporations will run 25 per cent ahead of the same quarter in 1928. That means not a little money, but BILLIONS. We do things on a big scale.

With everything from lunch counters to steel mills incorporated, corporation earnings reflect national prosperity.

50 YEAR SENTENCE FOR
MATTHEWS FOR KILLING

JURY FINDS HIM GUILTY OF
SLAYING OF JOE HOSCH
HERE ON JULY 6

Fred Matthews, 19 years old farmer of the Yarrelton community, was given a 50 years sentence in the state penitentiary for the killing of Joe Hosch here on July 6, 1929 by a jury in District Court on last Friday.

The case was tried last week, consuming the entire week with Judge Jeffery of Lockhart on the bench in the absence of Judge Watson who was in New Braunfels to try Becky Rogers for the Buda bank robbery.

Matthews received the verdict of the jury apparently unmoved and is now in the Milam county jail pending action of the appeal of his case which is now being prepared by his attorneys, E. A. Camp of Rockdale and E. A. Wallace of Cameron. Motion for a new trial was filed in district court following the verdict and appeal of the case will be made to the court at Austin.

District Attorney Jack Lewis led the prosecution in this case and was assisted by Chambers & Gillis.

HERNANDEZ CASE CALLED FOR MONDAY MORNING

YOUTHFUL NATIVE NATIVE OF
PERU CHARGED WITH MURDER OF AGED GROCERYMAN

Antonio Hernandez, 22 year old native of Peru, charged by indictment with the killing of Josef Pavalak, aged groceryman in Cameron on July 30 will face trial in district court on Monday October 1 when his case is called.

A special venire of 160 men has been summoned for that date. The trial is expected to evoke a great deal of interest on account of the sensational manner in which the aged man met his death. He was beaten to death with a hammer as he sat in the store around the noon hour.

The store was robbed of a considerable sum in cash and the young man arrested in the late afternoon of the same day on the Maysfield road was found to possess a pistol and money taken from the store, according to Sheriff Blaylock and deputies.

Hernandez has been held in the Milam county jail without bond since the killing. He shows little interest in his case and will talk but little relative to his coming trial.

R. L. Batte Recovering
From Car Wreck Injury

R. L. Batte who was injured in an automobile wreck near Itasca on the night of September 17 while returning to Cameron from Fort Worth, is recovering rapidly and his many friends will be pleased to note his progress.

The accident occurred when his car was struck by a truck loaded with negroes as both cars sought to pass a wagon on the road. Mr. Batte was severely injured, his right leg being broken near the knee. He will not be able to go about as usual for some weeks but will recover entirely from his injuries.

Blue Caldwell who was with Mr. Batte at the time of the accident was also severely injured.

Two negroes on the truck are said to have died as a result of the injuries sustained in the accident.

ROYAL P. JETER IS
ROLL CALL CHAIRMAN

RED CROSS CHAPTER HOLDS
MEETING TO PLAN DRIVE FOR MEMBERSHIP

Royal P. Jeter was named roll call chairman in Milam county for the annual Red Cross drive at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the district court room of the Milam county court house. An assisting committee for Mr. Jeter was appointed by the chairman of the meeting, the personnel of which is Mrs. J. P. Love, Mrs. W. O. Triggs, Miss Bess DuBois, Oxsheer Smith, Roy Baskin, and F. J. Beckerman. J. D. Baskin was elected chairman for disaster relief. The ultimate goal for this county in the roll call subscription has been set at $1500 and it was voted to accept the quota.

Hon. Graham Gillis, chairman of the Milam county chapter of the Red Cross, presided at the meeting. The speaker for the occasion was Mr. Tom Beason of St. Louis, a representative of the National Red Cross Association who outlined plans for the roll call and stressed the importance of Red Cross work.

'The war is not over,' Mr. Beason said, and then he went on to explain that in the United States there are 70,000 young men suffering as a result of the war, and that it will not be over until every man of these has passed away. It is the duty of the people he said, to see that these men are cared for.

The Red Cross, to which 52 nations belong, was originally formed to care for the wounded, sick and suffering on the battlefield. In time of peace it cares for ex-service men, disabled soldiers, and men in the regular army and navy. It attends to their wants and looks after the parents of these boys when they come to visit them. Mr. Beason explained that the Red Cross works with the American Legion as much as possible.

The roll call drive for 1929 will be held November 11-30. As is customary, one-half the membership fee will remain in the county and the other half will be sent to headquarters to keep the organization intact.

In connection with the naming of a chairman for disaster relief, Mr. Beason gave certain statistics, saying that in the United States last year 117 counties that had been visited by disasters were given Red Cross aid. There 364 counties affected by disasters, and 28 of them were visited twice. Whether we contribute to the roll call or not, in case of a disaster our county will receive aid if we request it, and it is the duty of the chairman of disaster relief to make such a request.

Reed Rogers Goes To Liverpool, England

Reed Rogers has sailed aboard the Cripple Creek, a marine ship for Liverpool, England, according to advices received by his parents here this week, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Rogers.

Reed left Cameron some weeks ago to take passage for Europe, in a travel plan he has to see the continent and other places of interest in the world. The ship sailed from Houston and is loaded with 8000 bales of cotton for the center at Liverpool.

He left Cameron with Joe Charles Burnett, son of Joe Burnett of Milam who sailed earlier in the week on another ship for European ports.

CAMERON COTTON

Up to Wednesday night the Cameron Compress had received 9,120 bales of cotton from the 1929 crop as compared with 15,389 for the same date in 1928. This gives an index to the crop shortage in Milam county.

TEXAS POWER & LIGHT
HEAD INVITED HERE

JOHN W. CARPENTER MAY DE-
LIVER ADDRESS AT COMMERCIAL CLUB BANQUET

John W. Carpenter, president of the Texas Power & Light Company, in response to an invitation has expressed his desire to deliver the address at the annual banquet of the Cameron Commercial Club on next Monday night.

Mr. Carpenter does not know for sure whether he can attend the banquet or not, but hopes to be able to attend. If he cannot be here for the meeting he will ask J. B. Thomas, head engineer for the company to address the meeting. Mr. Thomas is well known for his addresses and has a large radio audience who hear him at frequent intervals talk on subjects of interest to the people.

The committee in charge of the ticket sales for the banquet reports progress and it is expected that a large attendance will be realized for this important meeting of the club.

The meeting next Monday night will conduct the election of officers and directors for the coming term. A full attendance of members is requested. The banquet will be served in the basement of the Methodist church.

Considerable interest attaches to the meeting and the address of Mr. Carpenter who is expected to bring a message of vital importance to the people of Cameron.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR CONCRETE ROAD

ARKANSAS FIRM IS LOW BIDDER
AND WORK BELIEVED TO
START WITHIN 60 DAYS

The State Highway Commission on Tuesday of this week opened bids on paving the Rockdale leg of Highway 43. The Inter-state Construction Company of Little Rock, Ark., was the low bidder and the contract was awarded that firm. The total amount of contract figures $254,422.96, for 13 8-10 miles of 18-foot concrete roadway, starting at the east precinct line near Milano and running to the west precinct line at Dry Brushy creek, about four miles this side of Thorn-dale. The square yard price is $1.62.

Next lowest bidder was the firm of Gibson and Gibson whose bid was $256,084.26. There were several other bidders, the highest being the firm of T. J. Jane Company at $323,322.07.

Probably the happiest man in Rockdale this week is H. C. Meyer, who is known from Austin to Longview as the 'daddy' of Highway No. 43. The awarding of this contract is the culmination of more than ten years' constant thought and work by Mr. Meyer. He it was who first broached the matter of a cross-state highway paralleling the I-G. N. through Texas. Due to his indomitable energy and intelligently directed effort the highway was designated, and bit by bit the gaps in same are being closed. The chief obstacle was found in the lack of a bridge over the Brazos river. This bridge was finally financed and constructed. And now the work of concreting has been started, and the Rockdale road precinct has the honor of starting it.

Mr. Meyer has had able assistants in his labors, but if any one man in Texas deserves 'special mention' in connection with Highway 43 it is H. C. Meyer. It's his 'baby'; and Boy, Howdy! What a 'daddy' he has made! 'Of course, we do not know how soon the contractor will start work,' Mr. Meyer stated yesterday 'but we have every reason to believe that it will be within sixty days, and probably sooner than that.'—Rockdale Reporter.

Authentic Giantess

Elln Ewing, known as the Missouri giantess, was born in Scotland county Missouri, of normal parents, and at birth weighed 6½ pounds. She grew abnormally between the ages of 8 and 22 years, until she reached the enormous height of 8 feet 4 inches. She wore a number 24 shoe. It took 30 yards of silk to make a dress for her. When she stopped at hotels, ordinary beds had to be placed side by side so she could sleep across them. She made a fortune traveling about on exhibition and died at the age of 40 years.

Grades of Ebony

Ebony is the wood of a number of related trees, found in nearly all parts of the tropical world. Its northernmost range is northern Bengal, in India, and in localities of similar latitude and climate. The best grades are from a certain species native to southern India and Ceylon. Another much appreciated variety is from Madagascar. Other places where ebony grows are in Africa, especially Angola; in the East Indies; and, the poorer Jamaica variety, in the West Indies.

Clever and Dangerous

The centipede abroad in eastern lands is a formidable, and often poisonous, insect, but its wisdom might well instruct human beings of every age and clime. Afraid of the tarantula (a species of great spider), the centipede always takes care to build a cactus fence round itself ere it goes to sleep. It is most entertaining to watch the security of the centipede as they lie at ease, while their arch-enemies cannot crawl over the cactus which they will never tackle.

The Peaceful Celt

Two County Cork boys were in a mopping-up party that had followed the main assault. In a large shell hole they found a group of ten or twelve Germans sound asleep, apparently missed by the first wave. "Well," said Sean, "shall we shoot 'em or stick 'em?" "Ho, hum," said Denis, looking up at the sky, "it's a foine day. Let's wake 'em up and have a foight."—Pullman News.

Minerva Darkey Kills Wife When She Wants Divorce

Robert Bailey, colored, working on the Minerva section gang, is in jail at Cameron charged with the murder of his wife. The woman was shot with a shotgun Saturday night about 8 o'clock, as she lay on a cot in the section bunk house at Minerva. Her head was almost entirely blown away and it is alleged that the shot was fired by her husband through a window.

The woman, Texana Bailey, went to Cameron Saturday afternoon and filed suit for divorce from Robert Bailey, alleging mistreatment and threats of killing. The same night Bailey went to the house and tried to talk her out of proceeding with the divorce. Upon her refusal to listen, it is alleged that he stepped outside and fired one shot through a window as the woman lay on a cot.

Immediately following the tragedy Bailey slipped away and walked thru the woods and fields to Cameron, where he surrendered to Sheriff Blaylock.—Rockdale Reporter.

each check contained the notation that it was for cotton picking, making the check easier to pass. At each place of business where he worked the scheme several dollars worth of Merchandise was purchased.

The forger was described as a young man between 18 and 20 years of age and drove an old T Model Ford touring car. It is understood that the forger was here several days previous to his passing the spurious checks. Officers of neighboring towns have been notified to be on the look out for the artist.—Thorndale Champion.

Hot Check Artist Gets Away With $137.00 In Money

Several Thorndale business houses were the victims of a hot check artist here last Saturday evening after banking hours. Worthless and forged checks to the amount of approximately $137.00 were passed during his few hours work here. The names forged were those of Raymond Taylor and Oscar Knight, both well-known farmers of this community. The checks invariably were for odd cents and ranged from $20 up to more than $30 and

America's who's who ride on MILLER DE LUXE BALLOONS

AMERICA'S most talked of tire is the New Miller De Luxe Balloon. It is the chosen tire of those whose names are known throughout the land. A Rolls Royce roadster slips down 5th Avenue. A beautiful girl at the wheel. It's Marilyn Miller in her Miller equipped car.

A Packard Phaeton speeds up to the entrance to the Cardinals' Ball Park in St. Louis. It's Frank Frisch, popular second baseman, on time on Millers.

"Lopez Speaking," comes the voice of a great orchestra leader over the air from New York. Lopez keeps his appointments with the aid of a Miller equipped Lincoln.

And here's a long racy Cadillac roadster with a familiar face smiling over the top of low-set wheel. It's Irene Bordoni who feels perfectly safe with Millers "all around."

And so it goes—the parade of notables—riding on Miller De Luxe Balloons.

These are people who demand the finest tires money can buy. To them—quality is paramount. They cannot be worried with tires.

Let us show you the names of many more who ride on Miller De Luxe Balloons—and why these super tires are the choice of America's Who's Who.

Annual Banquet For Official Family of The Baptist Church

The annual banquet for the official family of the First Baptist church was held in the Sunday School annex last Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. With the new church year beginning on October 1, this banquet serves each year as a get-together meeting for the newly elected officers of the church.

Rev. R. E. Day, pastor of the First Baptist church at Bryan and for many years a close friend of Rev. Hutcherson spoke to the assembled group, using as his general theme the fact that we are all laborers together for God. Rev. Day was accompanied by Mr. Park, a member of the Bryan church, who was also a guest at the banquet. Other out of town guests were Rev. and Mrs. Robert Mayfield of Atlanta, Ga.

The banquet was prepared and served by the ladies of the church under the general supervision of Mrs. Clara Thomas, president of the W. M. U. Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Arthur Lee in vocal solo accompanied by Miss Helen Flinn with violin obligato by Mr. Lee and by Mr. Lee, who played a violin solo.

Following the address by Rev. Day those present signed cards making pledges toward supporting the budget for the coming year. The church, in addition to the regular budget, is attempting to pay the salary of a foreign missionary for one year, and this item is also included on the pledge card.

Lyons McCall Will Wed Lurline Betts at Mexia October 7

A news item in the Waco Times-Herald Sunday, announces the engagement of Lyons McCall of Cameron and Miss Lurline Betts, granddaughter of Mrs. N. P. Houx of Mexia, was announced at a party given at the home of Miss Betts' sister, Mrs. Herman Hitt, at Mexia recently. The NEW Firestone Supreme Balloon

Is Writing New Tire History

HISTORY is made by those who create finer things, better things, more lasting things than have ever before been produced. The new Firestone Supreme Balloon is finer, larger, better, more rugged, more lasting than any tire that has ever before been offered to the American public—that is why it is writing new tire history. Here is a tire that will match your car, mile for mile, hour after hour with every sprint of the motor, every pressure of the brakes and every turn—over any and all kinds of roads, in all kinds of weather. It has appearance, quality, performance, dependability, safety and extra mileage; in fact, it has everything and more than the famous Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires that already hold all world records for speed, safety, economy and mileage. While its cost is higher, yet it is more economical because it brings you tire performance above and beyond anything the world has ever known. Come in today—you will like it the minute you see it. Liberal allowance made for your old tires.

Presbyterian Men Are Entertained By Womens Class

The east lawn at the Presbyterian church strung with colored lights, was the scene of a jolly party last Thursday evening, at which time members of the Women's Sunday School class entertained the Men's Bible Class and their teacher, Hon. Jack Lewis. Old-fashioned games and a spelling bee furnished diversion for the evening, at the close of which ice cream and cake were served.

The class of women, which is known as the Ebenezer Class, was named from the mission in Kentucky where Mrs. Mary Henderson so ably works. Before her departure for mission work, Mrs. Henderson was a member of the class, hence it was named in her honor. Mrs. W. L. Wilson is the very capable teacher.

Sheppard and Connally Assert Cotton Forecast Is Badly Overestimated

Washington, Sept. 23.—Charges that the United States crop reporting board, on Sept. 9, overestimated the probable yield of cotton by from 300,000 to 500,000 bales, were laid today before the secretary of agriculture by Senators Sheppard, democrat, and Connally, democrat, of Texas.

Protesting against the formula used by the board, the senators said:

"The recent speculative bear movement in cotton was based on the theory that the rains in the drought section of the cotton belt, which occurred early in September, might increase the yield in that area enough to offset the losses of August.

"This attempt to discount future developments may account for the use of an inflated formula in preparing for the September estimate."

Hyde was requested to make public the extent to which the board attempted to anticipate future development in that estimate, in order to enable farmers to obtain an adequate price for their cotton such as the reduced supply outlook indicates they should receive.

Emory Camp of Rockdale is in Cameron this week attending to business in the district court.

Mrs. H. E. Bauknight entertained her Sunday school class on last Saturday afternoon from four to six. She was assisted by her daughter, Miss Annie, and Mrs. M. G. Cox. Games were played and the little folks were treated to candy, cake and fruit punch. The following little Misses compose the class and enjoyed the hospitality of their loved Sunday school teacher: Lillian Darwin, Nellie Graham, Lucille Avriett, Nadine Sharpe, Carrie Dobbins, Maureine McAnally, Willie Marshall, Dovey Wallace, Julia Wallace and Juanita Stafford.

Culture Club
In place of the regular 3:30 afternoon meeting of the Cameron Culture Club, a meeting was had last week at 8:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Tom Henderson. The club ladies, their husbands and a large number of friends were present. This night meeting was had that the members of the club and husbands and friends might have the rare pleasure of listening to a paper by Mr. John C.

Oxenford on 'Lady Macbeth.' Mr. Oxenford, a citizen of Cameron is an Englishman by birth, a gentleman of exceptional talents, and has a thorough, classical education. His paper was the stroke of a genius, so much admired. He received a rising vote of thanks from the club ladies.

Four of the club ladies had a debate: 'Resolved, That the workings of conscience were greater in Macbeth than in Mrs. Macbeth.' The visiting husbands and friends of the club were to give a sealed vote after the debate for the side in their judgment which had best proved the point in question. Mrs. Wm. Simms and Mrs. Wm. Henderson were for the affirmative, and Mrs. Jeff Kemp and Mrs. Jeff Hefley, were for the negative. The count of the vote proved two to one for the negative.

Smart Set

Miss Lena Triggs delightfully entertained the Smart Set last Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. Six interesting games of progressive 42 were played. After examining the score cards Miss Florine Sampson proved to be the lucky winner of the first prize, a dainty white silk fan. Mrs. Poteet was given the guest prize, a beautiful blue silk handkerchief case, and the consolation was given to Mrs. Monta Moore. After the games a two course luncheon was served. The following were the club's visitors: Mesdames M. J. Moore, Geo. A. Thomas, John Poteet, Jeff Hefley, and Miss Mary Rogers.

Senior Accountancy Course at Tyler Leads To C. P. A. Degree

Taken as a whole—man for man and woman for woman—it is doubtful if there is a profession in the world which can show such a large average income as accountancy. There are many accountants—especially those who have attained Certified Public Accountant degrees—who earn and collect salaries and fees which enable their incomes to rank with those of old, old professions. The United States Steel Company paid a firm of accountants a quarter of a million dollars just for designing its accounting system. Individual accounting fees running from $10,000 to $70,000 are not at all unusual.

More and more young people are coming to a realization of the fact that Accountancy offers unusual opportunities. Schools are offering special courses for accountancy. The Tyler Commercial College at Tyler, Texas, is one of the first business schools in the South to add to the curriculum a Senior Accountancy Course which prepares the student for the C. P. A. degree.

The Senior Accounting Course offered at Tyler is endorsed by the Committee of Education of the American Association of Public Accountants. In speaking of the course the committee said: "It is a Constructive Accounting Course which consists of an exposition of accounting principles beginning with fundamentals and working from a constructive standpoint towards the most advanced requirements. This course includes problems, quiz-questions and practice sets correlated with lectures on the fundamental principles of theory. This course is designed to prepare students for the general practice of accountancy, either in public or private, and to pass C. P. A. examinations. This course includes a training in law and economics and is based upon sound pedagogical principles."

The Senior Accounting Course may be taken at Tyler school by only those who have a high school education or its equivalent. A good educational background is absolutely essential.

If you are interested in preparing for the C. P. A. degree; if you really want to make your mark in the world write to the Tyler Commercial College for Book Number 64. If you are interested in other courses such as

Secretarial, Banking, Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Stenotypy, Radio, Telegraphy, Cotton Classing, Civil Service, or other courses, get a copy of 'Achieving Success in Business.' No obligations, of course. Books and information are free. Mail the coupon. TYLER COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

Hudson-Essex Now Offers Excellent Financing Plans

The Hudson Motor Car Company announces the completion of an arrangement with Commercial Investment Trust for the financing of sales of Hudson and Essex cars and Dover commercial cars in the chief export markets of the world. The volume expected annually by C. I. T. under the contract is about $20,000,000.

The arrangement is known as the H. M. C. Export Finance Plan and follows in general the style of the company's arrangements for financing sales to domestic distributors and dealers. Rates have been established on very favorable bases, Hudson officials declare.

'The H. M. C. Export Finance Plan is the result of several years' intensive study of all existing forms of overseas financing,' said J. S. Draper, Hudson's General Export Manager. 'It is adaptable to all markets and puts at the disposal of our overseas organization a definite means of surmounting one of the biggest obstacles in the path to easier sales. It is a real contribution to the development of overseas trade—a service to the buying public and to the Hudson-Essex organization."

Under the terms of the agreement, Commercial Investment Trust will handle Hudson-Essex and Dover business through its offices in the following cities: Brussels, Belgium; Berlin, Germany; London, England; Copenhagen, Denmark; Calcutta, India; Sydney, Adelaide, Perth, Brisbane and Melbourne, Australia; Christchurch, New Zealand; Buenos Aires, Argentina; Sao Paulo, Brazil; Santiago, Chile; Christobal, Canal Zone; Mexico City, Mexico; San Juan, Porto Rico; Havana, Cuba and Johannesburg, South Africa.

Additional offices will be opened by C. I. T. as overseas business warrants.

Nothing Newer than Today's Hudson

The greatness of Hudson value is expressed with unparalleled power in the way its NEWNESS stands out among the Newest and Latest models the industry offers.

Here we find feature after feature of Hudson's origination, now offered in the new models of the more expensive cars.

Here we find, featured as new, such advantages as radiator shutters—first introduced and for years standard with Hudson.

Here we find Hudson type brakes, Hudson type shock absorbers. Counterbalanced crankshafts are much to the fore, which seek to approximate the efficiency and smoothness of the Super-Six principle.

Nothing has been produced to touch its value and price advantage. It is still the master car in performance and reliability.

And Hudson still is alone in offering the almost individual distinction of such wide color choices, at no extra cost. See and examine the new offerings of other makers by all means. Then come, compare and drive the Greater Hudson. You, too, must feel the spontaneous enthusiasm that has

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH MILAM COUNTY?

Mailing a clipping from a daily paper telling of the establishment of another cheese factory in this section of the State, an anxious subscriber propounds this query to The Reporter: 'What's the matter with Rockdale and Milam county that we can't have a factory of this sort?'

The answer is apparently simple: 'Quite evidently the people don't want it.' A milk plant was established in Cameron less than a year ago and died for lack of patronage. It is alleged that mismanagement had something to do with its quick demise, but certainly lack of raw product was the important factor which hastened its untimely end.

There are not enough good cows producing rich enough milk in the county to support a milk factory, and there probably never will be as long as the cattle tick is left to do its deadly work on imported cattle. Milam county will never get rid of the cattle tick until the people of the county want such action taken.

This year there is a war on in Milam county between the fever tick and the boll weevil to see which pest can do the county the greatest amount of harm. The Reporter hopes the boll weevil wins the contest. Maybe it can then be demonstrated that the only way to improve farm conditions in this county is to quit planting so much cotton, get rid of the fever tick (which is an easy matter) and go in for more and better Jersey cows, hogs, chickens and turkeys. The Cow, the Sow and the Hen, will solve our problem if we'll let 'em. But as long as our farming population continues to depend upon cotton, and hugs to its bosom the cattle tick, just so long will Milam county be beset with boll weevil and 'hard times.'

It isn't the lack of capital that keeps Rockdale from having a cheese factory; it's lack of cows. The only way to do a thing right is to start right. The way to start Milam county on a clear road to its rightful claim of 'matchless' qualities is to accept the State and Federal authorities' assistance and direction in eliminating the fever tick, once and for all. Then can come a systematic building-up of the dairy herds of the county, and in due time will follow an outlet for the product, such as is found in cheese factories, creameries and milk plants. Then also will follow freedom from enslavement at the hands of the cotton devil.

Incidentally Lee and Burleson counties will have to fall in line.—Rockdale Reporter.

This may be old stuff, but it is interesting. We observed a stream of ants running across our window sill yesterday. Curiosity prompted us to note the time required for these particular ants to travel a foot. We found they averaged a foot in 5 seconds. This would make 12 feet a minute. We got to figuring some more. These particular ants measured five to the inch. At the same proportion of size and speed the average automobile if it could travel as fast as an ant travels would move along at the rate of 90 miles an hour. The ants in question were engaged in the prosaic task of moving their eggs from one location to another and appeared to be in no particular hurry as they appeared to have time to stop and gossip with each other at frequent intervals. We have no doubt that if an ant would really get down to business and show some speed it could easily hang up a record in comparison with which a modern automobile would have to travel 200 miles an hour. Beside the ant, the airplane is still a blundering moth and the record-breaking steamships, slow moving tortises.

In our younger days we fell, on a number of occasions for the book agent who sold us a set of books on the installment plan. The thought of the collector coming every month fretted us to the extent that about the second trip of the collector we paid the whole account. There is something about the thought of a collector coming every month for the installment that puts another worry into the scheme of things. Installment buying is all right for a home or the solid necessary things of life, but we can easily imagine how one's entire peace of mind could be destroyed with the ever present haunting thought of a collector coming every week for a 30 cent payment on a straw hat or a pair of oxfords. In commenting on the tendency toward installment buying one has said, 'It was once said you had to make a better mouse trap but now all you need to do is to neglect your installments and the world will beat a path to your door.'

The human race is to blame for all the evils that overtake it. A man who constantly over eats is going to have to pay for it all sooner or later with some kind of illness or bodily affliction. A man who sits in a draft will pay for it with a cold. An unsanitary condition will always breed disease. In the same measure the race is to be blamed for the economic ills that have overtaken it. People will patronize a business until it gets a strange hold on the nation and then howl their heads off about trusts. The human race has created every trust or monopoly that threatens individual enterprise. The human race is like a child. It squalls for candy until it makes itself sick and then it turns squalls for a doctor and blames providence and the conditions of the times.

Filling stations as a rule set the example in the town for well kept premises.

There is this to say on this new currency business. It will not be necessary now that the new size is in circulation, to dispose of the old model at a loss.

The United States and Canada exported last year 586,498 automobiles which was almost as many as the rest of the world produces. America is by long odds the home of the motor car.

The worst thing that can happen to a young man, rightly believes the editor of the Altoona Tribune, is to have a mother or a sister who hates to see him work.

The Kansas City Kansan classes as an unsubstantiated rumor the announcement that the likeness of Salmon P. Chase appears on the new $10,000 bills.

SCHOOL AT GAUSE OPENED FOR NEW TERM

PROGRAM MARKS OPENING OF NEW SESSION AS BELL CALLS CHILDREN

The school bell rang Monday, September 23, welcoming a large body of pupils, a number of patrons and visitors. At nine o'clock all assembled in the auditorium for the opening exercises which were the best we have ever had.

After invocation by F. M. Hauptfleisch and all singing America, H. O. Lee, a member of the board of trustees introduced our new superintendent, F. J. Cook. Mr. Cook in turn introduced the other teachers who were Miss Roberta Holden of Franklin, who has already done four years of very satisfactory work in the Gause school, the teacher of English; Miss Florence Hilliard of Rosebud, who was a member of the faculty last year, Spanish and history teacher; Miss Mary Sue Walker of Waco, history teacher; Mrs. G. R. Varner of Gause, a member of the faculty last year, the fourth and fifth grade; Miss Anna Marie Barnes of San Marcos, the second and third grades; Mrs. F. J. Cook the primary room. Mr. Cook will teach mathematics.

Miss Myrl Hickman, a high school student, gave a very beautiful number on the piano. Miss Walker, a member of the faculty and expression teacher, won the favor of many by reading 'My Little White Rose.'

F. M. Hauptfleisch, representing the patrons, gave a very interesting talk. Mr. Walker of Waco, a retired professor and the father of one of our teachers, Miss Walker, and Rev.

Weeks, pastor of the Methodist church both gave very interesting and inspiring addresses.

After the program the pupils assembled at their respective rooms where they received their books.

Everything being in readiness, a group of one hundred and fifty enthusiastic pupils and with such an able faculty to guide them we feel that we will have the best school ever had.

INTROSPECTION

By Elizabeth Larocque

There is no prayer upon my lips Nor is there any in my heart—I cannot touch my finger tips And kneeling bid all pain depart; Nor ask of God what I would gain—Nay! all my strength must be within In that strange place where soul meets brain.

If this be evil I must sin. And yet—it's strange—if I could pray What would I ask? I do not know. There is not aught for which I'd say, 'Ah, God in Heaven, I want it so!' Unless perhaps it could be this—To find a dream, to see a star, And know the strange unequalled bliss Of reaching out—for things, too far

CARD OF THANKS

I want to express to my friends my sincere appreciation and deep feeling of gratitude for their many beautiful remembrances and their kind words of sympathy, while I am confined to the hospital. My family and I are grateful for these many friendly ministrations and I hope to be able to thank you each personally when I am up and about in the next few weeks. R. L. BATTE.

Faculty Members In Barbecue Celebration On Little River

All faculty members of the Cameron schools and the members of the Board of Education were guests Tuesday evening of T. A. Fisher, superintendent of schools, Mr. L. Van Perkins, principal of the high school and Mr. Guy Newton, instructor in the high school, when they entertained with a goat barbecue and everything to go with it. The place was on the river near Minerva on the farm owned by Gilbert Terry.

Following the barbecue the guests enjoyed a period of singing, story telling and conversation.

BILIOUS, DIZZY

Lady Says She Suffered Much Discomfort Until She Tried Black-Draught; Found It Brought Relief.

Townville, S. C.—'I had a bilious spell. I would get very dizzy and have such a bad taste in my mouth,' says Mrs. Bertha Whitfield, of this place.

'When I would stoop over, I felt like I was going over on my head. When I would get up mornings, I felt as tired as when I went to bed. A friend told me how she had been helped by taking Black-Draught, and how she kept it in her home. So I thought I would try it, any way, which I did, and from then on I have used Black-Draught when I feel bad, get up tired, or feel that I need anything. Now I recommend it to my friends.'

'If I get tired and sluggish, feeling like I must sit around when I have lots to do, I take Black-Draught. A few doses seem to be what it takes to cleanse my system of impurities that may cause this trouble.'

Black-Draught is made from finely powdered herbs and roots carefully combined, weighed and packaged by automatic machinery. Easy to take—no disagreeable after-effects.

Kentucky Lady Was Weak And Felt Miserable. Dizzy Spells Quit After She Took Cardui.

Danville, Ky.—"For a long time, I suffered with severe headaches and pains in my sides and back," says Mrs. Lottie Smallwood, residing at 116 Fourth Street, this city.

"I was very weak, and just not able to go about or do my work. I just felt miserable.

"I was all out of heart. I would have spells when my head would hum, and my feet and hands were clammy and cold.

"I would be so dizzy, I would fall. "I had read of Cardui and what it had done for others, and so I, too, began taking it. I had been aching and hurting awfully.

"After I took Cardui, I quit having the dizzy spells. I kept on taking Cardui, and saw then that I was being helped. I was not nearly so weak, and from that time I have felt better. I took six bottles in all."

Cardui is a purely vegetable remedy and contains nothing harmful or injurious. It may be safely taken by a delicate young girl as well as by a feeble old lady.

Cardui has been in use by women for over 50 years, and great numbers of women have reported that it helped them back to health.

GEORGETOWN GIRL AND MINERVA YOUNG MAN MARRIED TUESDAY; TO MAKE THEIR HOME AT MINERVA

(Rockdale Reporter)

An outstanding social event and one which held every one's interest took place Thursday afternoon when Mrs. J. C. Wallace complimented her niece, Miss Robbie Isaacs, whose marriage to Mr. Robert Swain will take place on September 17, with a miscellaneous shower.

The home had been made attractive for the occasion, a color scheme of pink and white being used in the decorations. The dining table was centered with a crystal vase holding pink roses and ferns, baskets and bowls of roses of the same hue were placed throughout the house.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by the hostess and honoree, who led them to the guest book presided over by Miss Johnnie Cone, of Rockdale.

When all were seated, Master Chas. Hickman Trotter, in the role of a Western Union Messenger boy, entered; and in his sweet childish voice announced, 'A telegram for Miss Robbie.' On opening it, Miss Isaacs found the following message: 'Dan Cupid has a secret to unfold, of a legend very, very old; at the foot of the rainbow a pot of gold. You will find the truth of the fable, by gently winding up the cable.' The attached cable led the bride-elect to the living room where a beautiful rainbow fashioned of crepe paper spanned the entrance. The mellow glow of the sun peering through the west windows accentuated the beauty of the arrangement. At the foot of the rainbow was the traditional 'pot of gold' which, on this occasion, proved to be many beautiful and useful gifts.

While the honoree, seated in a chair entwined with pink and white crepe paper, admired and displayed her lovely gifts, the hostess, assisted by Misses Jennie Bell Cone and Lucinda Mae Isaacs, served delicious refreshments consisting of cherry-nut cream and angel squares, carrying out the color motif of pink and white.

The plate favors were pink Killanery buds tied with satin bows of white. Tiny brides, on which the date of the wedding was written, were presented the guests. At this time, Mrs. Will H. McCown gave the following toast to the bride to be:

A young man named Bobbie;
Fell in love with a girl named Robbie
Said he, 'My dear I cannot live without you.'

Said she, 'Why sir—you don't have to!
So, on Matrimony's deep blue sea
Soon a-sailing they will be;

But I'll wager, ere the voyage is thru
She'll be captain of the 'crew.'

Now we've all wondered how she captured Swain;

But since meeting her, 'tis very plain
With her laughing eyes, she stole his heart;
From her sunny smile, he could not part.

With her manner so charming and petite—
Soon she had him at her feet.

So—here's to you—lovely bride-to-be
May life hold much in store for thee.
Here's good wishes for you galore—
May happiness be yours forever more.

Miss Isaacs gave an appropriate response to the toast.

Miss Marguerite White, accompanied by Miss Doreen Orr, played a number of beautiful violin selections during the afternoon.

Michalk and Clark To Drill Well On The Gilchrist Tract

Michalk and Clark, original discoverers of oil on the Johnson lease and whose efforts have caused much development in this territory, have taken a lease on acreage on the J. M. Gilchrist home place and have completed the erection of their derrick preparatory to making a test on this location. Their location is about 1-2 to 3-4 mile from their original discovery well.

Diggs No. 1 on the Holman tract about one mile north of town is drilling between 360 and 400 feet. A water line was laid from this test to the Brushy Creek to furnish water for the drilling.

E. L. Chapman, who took over the original Michalk-Clark well on the Johnson lease is setting 5 3-16 inch casing preparatory to giving the well a test as to its capacity and whether it can be made to pay. In the meantime Mr. Chapman is planning to start No. 2 on the Johnson lease. This location will be in close proximity to the old well.

Burkhead's Weigmann No. 1 is now on the pump and the outcome of this test will be determined within the next few days. Much expense has been borne by the promoters to make a producer out of this test and it is hoped that their efforts will be crowned with success.—Thorndale Champion.

a Policy and a Pledge

Regarding ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

FOR many years this Company was concerned with only one problem—that of delivering dependable and economical electric energy to the home.

Then the electric appliance—of one type and another—began to play a very important part in electric service to the home. This condition brought a further and deeper responsibility to this Company—that of supplying the proper kind of electric appliances to its customers.

An electric appliance for the home should do certain definite things. First it should be efficient; that is, give the most service for the least cost price. Second, it should use the least amount of electric energy in operation, and should stand up for the longest period of service.

It became necessary, then, for this Company to adopt a very rigid policy in the matter of selecting and offering appliances for sale to its customers. So, throughout the years this Company has maintained a testing laboratory through which each appliance must pass with creditable performance before it is offered to our customers.

You can depend absolutely on the appliances which we offer to you through our stores. Each one is the best of its kind. They have been carefully tested for quality, workmanship, economy of operation and are backed by the reputation of this Company, as well as by the manufacturer of the various appliances. Enjoy the fullest use of electric service with the best of electric appliances.

Charges of Arson Against Becky Are Dropped by Court

Georgetown, Texas, Sept. 23.—On motion of the state an arson charge against Mrs. Rebecca Bradley Rogers was dismissed in district court here today.

The motion was granted by Judge J. E. Price of Brenham, who presided in place of Judge Harry Dolan, disqualified by connection with the case as county attorney.

The former University of Texas co-ed was charged with burning a vacant house in Roundrock, Sept. 10, 1926. In a previous trial the state contended the dwelling was set afire by Mrs. Rogers to attract citizens away from the business section in order that she might hold up the Farmers' State Bank. The trial, held in September, 1927, resulted in a hung jury.

In a trial at New Braunfels last week on a charge of robbing the Farmers' National Bank of Buda, Texas, a jury was also unable to reach a verdict. It was Mrs. Rogers' fourth trial in connection with the two charges.

District Judge John Watson returned Sunday from New Braunfels where he presided at the trial there last week of Becky Rogers for the robbery of the Buda State Bank. The jury could not agree, the count being 9 to 3 for acquittal. It is thought the case may be finally dismissed following the statement of District Attorney Blundell who doubts the wisdom of another prosecution.

Hamer Called on to Show Cards in Probe at Borger

Borger, Tex., Sept. 23.—The force of Texas rangers investigating the assassination here Sept. 13 of District Attorney John A. Holmes was increased to eight tonight with the arrival of four additional rangers, M. T. Gonzales, W. H. Kirby, W. H. Purvis and Dott Smith. Should Captain Hamer return to the investigation, the force would number nine.

The Borger Daily Herald, in a front page editorial, called upon Captain Hamer to prove his charges that he had 'found the worst bit of organized crime' in Borger he had seen in years. Sheriff Joe Ownby characterized Hamer's statement as a 'lie.'

Hamer in a recent statement in Austin to Governor Moody declared that in his investigation of the assassination of District Attorney John A. Holmes in Borger, Sept. 13, he had found the worst bit of organized crime he had encountered in 25 years.

Male Critic Severe on Work of Women Poets

If an effort were made to determine what elements constitute feminine poetry, one would name first its chief characteristic—subjectivity. When a woman writes poetry her emotions generally center around herself and she is only interested in the world as something that reflects favorably or unfavorably on her own individuality. It is usually favorable and when unfavorable, wailingly agonized, writes Herbert G. Brumchen, in the North American Review.

As an artist it is rarely that a woman can translate her emotions objectively; in other words to comprehend the world and the human beings that are part of it, not as they touch herself, but as they affect the great lot of humanity.

Feminine poetry, moreover, when it is cheerful, is generally so in a superficial way; it is too often over-refined through an erroneous and typically feminine conception of the difference between refinement and truth. It is embroidery poetry, very apt to be sentimental and cloyingly sweet.

And only in rare instances does one find a poem written by a woman where the unpleasantness and even tragic truths of human relationships have not been carefully censored or glossed over.

Cultivate Serenity to Fight Mental Fatigue

Mental fatigue cuts down efficiency and spoils happiness. American life with its high-power speed for both work and play produces an unusual amount of mental fatigue. To aid in the cultivation of more serene habits, Dr. Lauren H. Smith, writing in Hygeia Magazine, makes the following suggestions:

1. When we work, let us keep our interest in it and make it pleasurable.

2. When we play, let us enter into it for all it is worth without regard for anything else.

3. When we rest and sleep, let us turn the mind and body loose to themselves and let them do what they will. Learn to rest the mind by leaving the mind alone.

4. When we think, let us make a decision and carry it out. If we decide incorrectly it can be reconsidered later.

5. When we are very tired, let us not permit a temporary or extreme emotional reaction to drive us into an act that will have permanent results.

Nation's Honey Production

In the United States the greater part of the honey produced is alfalfa honey from the western states, where several million dollars worth is sold every year. Sweet clover, white sage and other mountain flowers, also contribute to the western supply. In the central states it is white clover, sweet clover, Spanish needle and hightop honey. In the southern states, cotton, mesquite, horsemint and sweet clover and in the eastern states, northern states and Canada, buckwheat and white clover are the leading honey flowers. Orange blossoms, clover, aster and basswood complete the list.

Easy to Don Coat

Two men were chatting. "Why is it that Greeks and Italians can get into a coat easier than anyone else?" asked one. "I don't know," replied the careful one. "Did you ever notice the graceful overhead sweep of their arms as they slip on the coat with one complete motion?" queried the first speaker. The other admitted that he had noticed the phenomenon in question. "It's because their Roman and Grecian ancestors used that method in slipping on their togas and they haven't gotten over the idea," asserted Speaker No. 1.—Detroit News.

Ladies of Long Ago

The ladies to whom the troubadours sang had invariably hair of the color of flax, as soft as silk, and shimmering with a sheen of the finest gold. In ancient Spanish romances the hair is either of pure gold, or definitely fair. In ancient Germany, Gretchen had to have "fair hair, like gold; long bright, and curly." There is a famous description of a French lady of the Thirteenth century. "Her hair had the brilliance of gold, and was twisted into rebellious curls"—so evidently permanent waving was known.

Tomahawk Not Indian

The tomahawk, which is sometimes considered a weapon peculiar to the American Indian, was originally a club carved into some convenient shape. It was most commonly a stout stick about three feet in length, terminating in a large knob, wherein a projecting piece of flint was often inserted. The hatchets of the Indians that are now called tomahawks are a European device and the stone hatchets so often found in our fields, called by the same name were not military weapons but mechanical tools.

Gas Freezes Fire

Carbon dioxide, which is expelled from your body whenever you exhale, has been put to use by the Los Angeles fire department to put out fires in which streams of water are of little use, as in chemical and oil fires. The gas is carried in high pressure cylinders and when released a cloud of dry ice like that used in certain kinds of refrigeration is equipt over the fire. This reduces the temperature and prevents oxygen from reaching the blaze, thus smothering it.
